

GDPR Candidate Privacy Notice

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Somerset Cricket Board are committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information.
- 1.2 This Privacy Notice describes how we collect and use personal information about you during the recruitment process, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and applies to all candidates.
- 1.3 This Privacy Notice is for information only, it is not a contractual agreement.

2 Purpose

We are a "data controller". This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. You are being sent a copy of this Privacy Notice because you are applying for work with us (whether as an employee, worker or contractor). It makes you aware of how and why your personal data will be used, namely for the purposes of the recruitment exercise, and how long it will usually be retained for. It provides you with certain information that must be provided under the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (GDPR).

3 Data protection principles

- 3.1 We will comply with data protection law and principles, which means that your data will be:
 - 3.1.1 used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way;
 - 3.1.2 collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes;
 - 3.1.3 relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes;
 - 3.1.4 accurate and kept up to date;
 - 3.1.5 kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about; and
 - 3.1.6 kept securely.

4 The kind of information we hold about you

- 4.1 In connection with your application for work with us, we will collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you:
 - 4.1.1 The information you have provided to us in your curriculum vitae, application form and covering letter;
 - 4.1.2 Any information you provide to us during an interview;

- 4.1.3 Ability and psychometric testing results;
- 4.1.4 Right to Work identification documents; and
- 4.1.5 References provided by you at any time.

4.2 We may also collect, store and use the following "special categories" of more sensitive personal information:

- 4.2.1 Information about criminal convictions and offences.

5 How your personal information is collected

5.1 We collect personal information about candidates from the following sources:

- 5.1.1 You, the candidate;
- 5.1.2 Disclosure and Barring Service in respect of criminal convictions.;
- 5.1.3 Your named referees, from whom we collect the following categories of data: employment history with the relevant business, performance in the role, skills and abilities at work, dates of employment, relationship of referee to candidate, responsibilities and role(s) at work, personal attributes, suitability for employment and reason for leaving.
- 5.1.4 The following data from third parties is from a publicly accessible source:
 - (a) Employment data from existing websites; and
 - (b) Public profile information on social media such as LinkedIn.

6 How we will use information about you

6.1 We will use the personal information we collect about you to:

- 6.1.1 Assess your skills, qualifications, and suitability for the work or role;
- 6.1.2 Carry out background and reference checks, where applicable;
- 6.1.3 Communicate with you about the recruitment process;
- 6.1.4 Keep records related to our hiring processes; and
- 6.1.5 Comply with legal or regulatory requirements.

6.2 It is in our legitimate interests to decide whether to appoint you to a particular role since it would be beneficial to our business to appoint someone to that role.

6.3 We also need to process your personal information to decide whether to enter into a contract of employment with you.

6.4 Having received your CV, application form, covering letter and any results from the tests which you may undertake we will then process that information to decide whether you meet the basic requirements to be shortlisted for the role. If you do, we will decide whether your application is strong enough to invite you for an interview. If we decide to call you for an interview, we will use the information you provide to us at the interview together with your application data to decide whether to offer you the role or work. If we decide to offer you the role or work, we will then take up references, carry out a criminal record where appropriate and carry out a Right to Work check before confirming your appointment.

7 If you fail to provide personal information

If you fail to provide information when requested, which is necessary for us to consider your application (such as evidence of qualifications or work history), we may not be able to process your application successfully. For example, if we require a credit check or references for this role and you fail to provide us with relevant details, we may not be able to take your application further.

8 How we use particularly sensitive personal information

8.1 We will use your particularly sensitive personal information in the following ways:

8.1.1 We will use information about your disability status to consider whether we need to provide appropriate adjustments during the recruitment process, for example whether adjustments need to be made during a tour of the facilities, any tests which we may carry out or as part of the interview process.

8.1.2 We will use information about your race or national or ethnic origin, religious, philosophical or moral beliefs, or your sexual life or sexual orientation, to ensure meaningful equal opportunity monitoring and reporting.

9 Information about criminal convictions

9.1 We envisage that we will process information about criminal convictions where appropriate.

9.2 We will collect information about your criminal convictions history if we would like to offer you the work or role in a particular team such as the Youth Cricket or Finance teams (conditional on checks and any other conditions, such as references, being satisfactory). We are required to carry out a criminal records check in order to satisfy ourselves that there is nothing in your criminal convictions history which makes you unsuitable for the role. In particular:

9.2.1 We are legally required by the ECB to carry out criminal record checks for those carrying out a role or work with children and young people and Club first aiders.

9.2.2 The roles of Safeguarding Officer and Junior Coaches are listed on the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (SI 1975/1023) and are also specified in the Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records) Regulations (SI 2002/233) so is eligible for an enhanced check from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

9.2.3 Roles in the finance team require a high degree of trust and integrity since they involve dealing with Club accounts and funds and so we would like to ask any applicants for these roles to seek a basic disclosure of your criminal records history.

9.2.4 We have in place an appropriate policy document and safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data.

10 Automated decision-making

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making.

11 Data security

- 11.1 We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need-to-know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. Details of these measures may be obtained from the Data Protection Officer.
- 11.2 We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

12 Data retention

- 12.1 We will retain your personal information for a period of 6 months after we have communicated to you our decision about whether to appoint you to a particular role. We retain your personal information for that period so that we can show, in the event of a legal claim, that we have not discriminated against candidates on prohibited grounds and that we have conducted the recruitment exercise in a fair and transparent way. After this period, we will securely destroy your personal information in accordance with our data retention policy.
- 12.2 If we wish to retain your personal information on file, on the basis that a further opportunity may arise in future and we may wish to consider you for that, we will write to you separately, seeking your explicit consent to retain your personal information for a fixed period on that basis.

13 Rights of access, correction, erasure, and restriction

- 13.1 Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:
- 13.1.1 Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- 13.1.2 Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- 13.1.3 Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- 13.1.4 Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- 13.1.5 Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- 13.1.6 Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.

- 13.2 If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the Data Protection Officer in writing.

14 Right to withdraw consent

When you apply for a role, you will have provided consent to us processing your personal information for the purposes of the recruitment exercise. You have the right to withdraw your consent for processing for that purpose at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the Data Protection Officer. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your application and, subject to our retention policy, we will dispose of your personal data securely.

15 Data protection officer

- 15.1 We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with this Privacy Notice. If you have any questions about this privacy notice or how we handle your personal information, please contact the DPO Andy Fairbairn andy.fairbairn@somersetcricketboard.org.
- 15.2 You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>.
